

Dr. Hilary Kloss is an Advanced Level Certified Individual Schema Therapist for adults. She is a Clinical Psychologist by training and obtained her doctorate degree from University of Liverpool in the UK in 2011. She runs a private practice in Prague and is a consultant psychologist at Canadian Medical. She is also a lecturer and supervisor on the Masters in Psychology programme at University of New York in Prague. She has a special interest in the assessment and treatment of complex mental health issues and personality disorder in adults. She has published and presented research internationally in the area of sexual offending.